

OUR CULTURE

Who we are...

At Standard Motor Products, a culture of diversity has always been the force that drives us forward. Our foundation was built upon the legacy of diverse individuals with an unwavering commitment to an inclusive workplace. We will continue this legacy by fostering the creative, innovative and unique ideas of our employees, which allows them to excel.

OUR VALUES

What we do...

We are building a fluid and comprehensive diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) strategy as a roadmap for the collective success of all our stakeholders from every background.

OUR COMMITMENT

How we do it...

We achieve our DEI goals by listening, engaging and creating an environment where each employee feels valued and empowered, through the intentional promotion of policies and practices that fosters a rewarding work-life environment for our employee-family.
